Dear Members and Friends of First Presbyterian,

Grace to you and peace from Lord Jesus Christ!

On behalf of the Session, we announce the return to in-person worship services in the sanctuary beginning Sunday, June 21 at 10 a.m. Obviously, there will be limitations and noticeable differences. There will need to be some guidelines that we trust you will follow in order for us to gather in worship safely. A list of those guidelines appears on the reverse of this letter. We urge you to review this list before you come to worship.

We also wish to assure you that we will continue our Facebook Simulcast and SKYPE conference call platforms for worship for the foreseeable future. Not all of our congregants will be able to join us immediately and some we would encourage to stay home for the time being. If you fall into one of the vulnerable categories or are feeling ill, please remain at home and participate through technological means. As well, if you are understandably uncomfortable in gatherings at the moment, please feel no compunction to join us for now. Our seating capacity will be limited for the foreseeable future.

Thankfully, God has sustained us as individuals and a congregation during this incredibly difficult season. We appreciate the great patience you have demonstrated as well as your generous support.

If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact the church office.

On behalf of the Session,

Rev. Dr. Martin R. Ankrum, Pastor

Mrs. Janice Heming, Clerk of Session

Rev. Dr. Martin R. Ankrum, Pastor / Head of Staff
Dr. John B. Salveson, Minister of Music / Organist
Mr. Edgar B. Highberger, Minister of Music, Emeritus
